

Subject: Don't Miss Out on H2O World 2017

[first name], we've got great news.

H2O is getting you in to H2O World 2017 on December 4 and 5.

12.4.17 - 12.5.17

@ Computer History Museum
Mountain View, CA

H2O World returns as the premier event that brings together the data science and machine learning community. This is your chance to meet the team behind H2O and discuss hot topics such as Kaggle Grandmaster and H2O products. Learn from 30 industry leaders sharing first-hand experience on how H2O takes their business to the next level.

We think you should be there.

You must RSVP below to confirm your spot as space is limited. As a bonus register now and receive $100 off.
